

The Korean Institute of Tuberculosis

2018

History

1953

Establishment of the Korea National TB Association (KNTA)

1965

The 1st National Prevalence Survey

1970

Establishment of the Korean Institute of Tuberculosis

1980

Designation as TB Training center for developing countries from UN ESCAP

1994

Designation as a TB Supranational Reference Laboratory (SRL)

1995

Designation as a WHO Collaborating Center

2000

Development of the Korean TB surveillance Center (KTBS)

2007

Korea Mycobacterium Resource Center (KMRC)

2010

Relocation to Osong Bio-Health Science Technopolis

2012

Initiation of Official Development Assistance project in Adisababa, Ethiopia

International Training

- Manage the customized international training program for high-risk TB countries according to their national policies.
- Since 1971, designated the TB training center by UN ESCAP

	2013	2014	2015
No. training	5	4	7
No. trainee	36	100	122
No. of countries	9	7	9
Cooperation	KOICA, WHO, KOFIH, CDC	KOICA, WHO, KOFIH	KOICA, WHO, KOFIH

ODA Project in Timor-Leste

Strengthening Capabilities on Tuberculosis diagnosis and management in Timor-Leste (Dec. 2013 ~ Nov. 2016)

2017년 WHO WPR Workshop

Thank You