

Asian Institute for Bioethics and Health Law (AIBHL), Yonsei University

Vision - To develop and provide academic expertise to the society and humanity in the field of bioethics and healthcare law

Asian Institute for Bioethics and Health Law (AIBHL), Yonsei University

Terms of Reference (TOR)

- A. Support the development of expert networks and communities of practice in relation to health law and ethics and their contribution to advancing UHC and SDGs
- ① Health law symposium
 - ② Global network of Collaborating Centres in Bioethics in 2019
- B. Support WHO's engagement with parliamentarians in assisting Member States to strengthen legal frameworks for health
- ① Delegations of Korean Parliamentarian Forum on Global Health
 - ② Support Korean Parliamentarian Forum on Global Health
 - ③ Review legislation in Western pacific
- C. Support WHO in strengthening national capacities to address regional priority issues in health law and ethics
- ① Ethics guideline in Western Pacific Region
 - ② International workshop regarding regional priority issues

Homepage – aibhl.org